Home school parents have recommended the following websites:

<http://homeschoolcentral.com/new.htm> This is a good site for those families looking into home schooling for the first time.

www.hslda.org Home School Legal Defense Association is a non-profit advocacy organization established to defend and advance the constitutional right of parents to direct the education of their children and protect family freedoms.

www.hsncincy.com Home School Network of Greater Cincinnati www.leavesoflearning.org Leaves of Learning, based in Loveland, which provides enrichment and academic classes for home school students.

The Warren County Virtual Community School (www.wcvcs.com) is an online community school for grades 9-12. Because it is a community school it is not classified as home schooling. Like other forms of public and private schools, online schools are responsible for providing the curriculum and educational resources. Please contact Brian Barot, Principal, at 513-695-2567 for further information.

For further information regarding home schooling, please feel free to call our office at 513-695-2900.
